- To work alongside parents to ensure a consistent approach to behaviour.
- To provide a safe environment for everyone.

Our vision and associated values

During their time at Hipswell, our pupils learn how to live our vision and demonstrate our associated values. They understand what it is to be a global citizen and respect our British Values.

Our vision is to “Live generously and graciously towards others, the way God lives towards us” (Matthew 5:48). We nurture supportive relationships within our often-changing community. We aspire for our children to be resilient and to flourish - happily, confidently and with enthusiasm.

Our values:

- The Golden Rule (we are kind, helpful and polite)
- Love
- Perseverance
- Respect
- Truth
- Generosity
- Forgiveness

Our metacognitive approach develops the skills needed to be successful learners:

- Leadership
- Communication
- Initiative
- Resilience
- Organisation

Children's responsibilities are:

- To live our vision and demonstrate our core Christian values.
- To develop into positive global citizens who treat others generously and with respect.
- To build positive relationships with adults and each other.
- To work to the best of their ability.
- To take care of the environment in and out of school.

- Providing regular opportunities to reflect.
- Peer support through pupil leadership groups.
- Appropriate behaviour modelled. raise and reward.
- Each class agrees their 'class charter' at the beginning of the year and revisits the Jigsaw charter.

Consequences

There may be occasions where our vision and values are not followed, such as physical violence towards others, verbal abuse, disruptive behaviour, racism, causing damage to property, bullying.

On these occasions, our vision and values will be reinforced through:

- Regular discussions with parents
- Time to reflect with our expectations reinforced
- In KS1, removal to a 'Time Out Space' for up to five minutes
- A verbal warning followed by a second warning resulting in 5 minutes of playtime missed to reflect upon behaviour.
- Removal from the classroom.
- Referral to Headteacher/Senior Leadership Team.
- Spend a playtime with a member of staff to reflect.
- Home/school behaviour book
- Personalised behavior chart
- Exclusion procedures - fixed term or permanent

Reasonable force

Reasonable force covers a range of interventions that involve physical contact with pupils. All members of staff have a duty to use reasonable force to prevent a pupil from hurting themselves or others.

Incidents of reasonable force must:

- Always be used as a last resort.
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible.
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned.
- Be recorded and reported to parents.

When considering using reasonable force, staff should, in considering the risks, carefully recognise any specific vulnerabilities of the pupil, including SEND or medical conditions.

Engagement with external agencies for additional support

This could include:

- Army Welfare Service
- North Yorkshire PCSOs
- Education Psychology Services
- Inclusion Services for specialist SEND support
- Healthy Child Team
- Children and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS)
- Early Help

Fixed term and permanent exclusions

Only the headteacher has the authority to exclude a pupil from school. This is to be used as a last resort. She may exclude a pupil for one or more fixed periods, for up to 45 days in any one school year. The headteacher may also exclude a pupil permanently. It is also possible for the headteacher to convert fixed-term exclusion into a permanent exclusion if the circumstances warrant this.

If the headteacher excludes a pupil, she informs the parents immediately, giving reasons for the exclusion. At the same time the headteacher makes it clear to the parents that they can, if they wish, appeal against the decision to the governing body.

The headteacher informs the LA and the GB about any permanent exclusion and any fixed-term exclusions beyond five days in any one term.

The governing body itself cannot exclude a pupil or extend the exclusion period.

The governing body has a discipline committee, which considers any exclusion appeals on behalf of the governors.

When an appeals panel meets to consider exclusion, they consider the circumstances in which the pupil was excluded, consider any representation by parents and the LA and whether the pupil should be reinstated.

If the governors' appeals panel decide that a pupil should be reinstated, the headteacher must comply with this ruling.

Reasons for Exclusion

Depending upon the severity, possible reasons for exclusion may include:
Persistent foul, abusive, threatening, discriminatory or racist language.

Serious violent or persistent aggressive behaviour.
Serious incidents of bullying.
Malicious acts of damage or theft of property.
Continual open defiance of any adult in school.
Carrying knives or weapons in school.
Possession of illegal substances in school.

Monitoring

The headteacher monitors the effectiveness of this policy and behaviour is discussed regularly at SLT and staff meetings. She reports to the governing body on the effectiveness of this policy and, if necessary, makes recommendations for future improvements.

The school keeps a record of incidents of unacceptable behaviour that occur during the school day on CPOMS. This data is analysed termly to identify trends.

The headteacher keeps a record of any pupil who is suspended for a fixed-term or permanently excluded. It is the responsibility of the governing body to monitor the rate of suspensions and exclusions, and ensure that the school policy is administered fairly and consistently.

Review

The governing body reviews this policy every two years. The governors may, however, review the policy earlier if the Government introduces new regulations, or if the governing body receives recommendations on how the policy might be improved.
